

Parish Celebrations at St Ignatius Hall: Jubilee Launching with blessing by Archbishop

Very much part of the celebration was the launching of our Parish Golden Jubilee celebrations, through our Archbishop Nicholas Chia's blessings. Immediately, after the Mass, at the Place of Gathering, the Jubilee banner was lowered from the wall for His Grace to bless. After he blessed it Fr Philip Heng, S.J. explained the meaning of the Jubilee logo to all gathered.

Fr James Boey, then proceeded to the Parish columbarium with his immediate family to show his respect and give his first blessings as an Ordained Priest to his late father, Eric Boey and Jesuits.

Guests at celebration

The rest of the congregation was invited to St Ignatius Hall for the cutting of the cakes ceremony: Fr James Boey's ordination, Fr Paul Goh's Silver Jubilee celebration and our Parish Golden Jubilee celebration. The evening's programme was simple, short and sweet. We had different groups and individuals who sang beautifully for the occasion. The joyous celebration was clearly felt and enhanced by the elegant ambience, sumptuous buffet dinner and the fellowship that ended before 9.30 pm with His Grace Archbishop Nicholas giving us his blessings.
